

Civil and Family Court Fees

From 4 August 2014

Important information

This leaflet sets out a selection of civil and family court fees. It is not the full list, neither is it the authority on fees. For a full list of fees charged in the civil courts please see the EX50AHMCTS on hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

The full lists of all court fees are contained in Statutory Instruments (SIs) known as fees orders and can be found online at www.legislation.gov.uk

The court fees set out in this leaflet apply to, and are the same in, both the High Court, County Court and the Family Court, unless otherwise stated. Your local court will be able to help you identify any fee not contained in this leaflet.

Time for payment of fees

Court fees are payable at the time you file any document or commence any process requiring a fee, unless otherwise stated.

Methods of payment

Courts accept payment by debit or credit cards, cash, postal orders or cheques, which should be made payable to 'HM Courts & Tribunals Service'. If you pay by cheque and it is dishonoured, the court will take steps to recover the money. Non-payment will result in your case being stayed (delayed) or even struck out (dismissed).

You can pay by debit or credit card if you use either of the online services.

What if I cannot afford to pay a court fee?

If you cannot afford the fee, you may be eligible for a fee remission in full or in part. The combined booklet and application form EX160A - Court and Tribunal fees - Do I have to pay them? gives all the information you need. You can get a copy from any court hearing centre or online at hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

Refunds

If you have applied to issue a claim by post, and the defendant settles the dispute before your claim is processed by the court or business centre, you will be entitled to a refund provided you have let us know that the claim should not be issued.

To let us know your case has already been settled please notify the relevant County Court hearing centre or business centre via email or telephone. The relevant contact details can be found at: <http://courttribunalfinder.service.gov.uk>

You should keep a record of the fact that you have notified us.

If your claim has already been issued, you can recover the cost of your court fee from the defendant.

Under no circumstances should you cancel a cheque or card payment to HM Courts & Tribunals Service. Cancellation of a cheque or payment could result in HM Courts & Tribunals Service pursuing the fee from you as a civil debt.

Aside from the County Court hearing fee, no other fee outlined within the civil fees order is subject to a refund. HM Courts & Tribunals Service typically only refunds fees where the court has made a processing error, i.e. the court have processed a claim or application even though you have requested that it should not be processed.

In instances where the court user has made an error no refunds will be approved. Please note the court cannot be held responsible for processing duplicate applications or claims.

Should you wish to apply for a fee refund, please write to the relevant County Court hearing centre or business centre (details can be found on Court and Tribunal Finder <http://courttribunalfinder.service.gov.uk>) outlining the grounds for your refund request within two months of the fee having been paid. Applications outside this timeframe will not be accepted.

Please note that no fee refunds will be provided for claims issued via MCOL or PCOL unless there has been a system error, i.e. where a fee has been charged twice.

Refunds requested under the fee remission scheme will not be provided in relation to fees paid on MCOL.

Online services

HM Courts & Tribunals Service has two internet based services: Money Claim Online (MCOL) for some money claims up to the value of £99,999.99, and Possession Claim Online (PCOL) for possessions concerning rent or mortgage arrears. You can use either of these simple, convenient and secure processes and pay a reduced fee.

£250,000.01 – £300,000	£1,720	N/A more than £300,000 or an unlimited amount	£1,920	N/A

*Maximum amount for money claims on MCOL is £99,999.99

Non-money claims

To issue a claim for something other than money, including possession, the following fees will be payable based on where you start your claim:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------|
| • High Court | £480 |
| • County Court | £280 |
| • Possession Claims Online (PCOL) | £250 |

(PCOL can only be used for possessions concerning rent or mortgage arrears).

Certain non-money claims will attract the hearing fees set out on page 5. Check with the court to see if your case is affected.

Counterclaims and additional claims

- Money claims - the court fee payable (set out on page 3) is based on the value of the counterclaim or additional claims and where the original claim was issued. If the original claim was issued in a court, the court issue fee applies. If the claim was issued through MCOL or the County Court Business Centre, the reduced MCOL fees apply.
- Non-money claims - the court fee payable is based on where the original claim was made, either in the High Court or County Court. The court fees are set out above.

Costs proceedings

For court fees relating to the issue of costs only or cost assessment proceedings, go to pages 8 and 9.

General fees for civil proceedings

The fees on page 5 are payable by the claimant. Where a case proceeds on a counterclaim alone, the fees are payable by the defendant.

Hearing fees

Small Claim Track where the amount claimed is:

up to £300	£25
between £300.01 and £500	£55
between £500.01 and £1,000	£80
between £1,000.01 and £1,500	£115
between £1,500.01 and £3,000	£170
more than £3,000	£335

Fast track claim £545

Multi track claim £1,090

The hearing fee must be paid at the same time the pre-trial checklist is filed. If pre-trial checklists are not required, or the case is on the small claims track, the fees must be paid within 14 days of:

- the despatch of the notice of the trial date or trial week; or
- the date when you are told the trial date or trial week, if no written notice is given.

Warning: If you do not pay a fee when required the court can make an order which may lead to your claim, counterclaim or defence being struck out. This means you cannot continue with your claim or counterclaim.

Refunding hearing fees

Small claim hearing

You could get a full refund of the hearing fee if you notify the court in writing, at least seven clear calendar days (excluding the date of receipt and date of hearing) before the trial date or start of the trial week, that the case is settled or discontinued.

Fast track, multi track or non-money claim hearing

You could get a refund of some or all of the hearing fee if you notify the court in writing that the case is settled or discontinued. The following amounts will be refunded where the court is notified:

- more than 28 days before the hearing, 100% of fee;
- between 28 and 15 days before the hearing, 75% of fee;
- between 14 and 7 days before the hearing, 50% of fee;
- fewer than 7 days before the hearing, no refund.

General applications

- | | |
|---|------|
| • Application on notice where no other fee is specified. | £155 |
| • Application to set aside a County Court judgment. | £155 |
| • Application by consent or without notice where no other fee is specified. | £50 |
| • Application to vary a judgment, suspend enforcement or suspend a warrant of possession. | £50 |
| • Application for a summons or order for a witness to attend court. | £50 |
| • Application for a certificate of satisfaction of a judgment debt. | £15 |

No fee is payable for an application by consent for an adjournment of a hearing if received by the court at least 14 days before the date of the hearing.

Appeals

On filing an appellant's notice or respondent's notice in the:

- High Court £240
- County Court
 - Small claims track £120

Applications to commence proceedings and applications in existing proceedings to vary or discharge an order for a non-molestation, occupation or forced marriage protection order are not payable by the applicant or third-party applicant.

The respondent is still liable to pay the fee, except if a fee remission is granted.

Children

The court leaflet 'CB1 - Making an Application – Children and the Family Courts' provides more information on the types of Children Act applications and who can make them. A selection of the more common applications are set out below:

Applications under the Children Act 1989

- Any new applications under the Children Act 1989 to request permission to issue proceedings or for an order or directions to be made concerning the child(ren) - with the exception of applications for care and supervision orders, applications for breach of or for revocation of an enforcement order. £215
- Application for breach of or for revocation of an enforcement order £95

Applications to issue new proceedings under the Children Act 1989 are defined as any application for an order where there are no proceedings for the child(ren) currently being considered by the court. If proceedings under the Children Act 1989 are already being considered for the child(ren) the application fee for applications within proceedings will be charged. See the section headed 'Applications within proceedings' for further details.

Adoption

- On an application for permission, or an order, made under any provision in Part 1 of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 except s.22 £170
- Application for a placement order (section 22) £455

Children Act and adoption applications

Where an application is made or permission is sought under two or more provisions of the Children Act 1989, or the Adoption and Children Act 2002, or the Children and Adoption Act 2006, only one fee is payable, and if the fees are different, the highest fee is paid.

Maintenance orders

Please see the enforcement proceedings section for details of the fees applicable when applying for an order to enforce an order for the payment of money.

Applications within proceedings

- Application on notice where no other fee is specified. £155
- Application by consent or without notice where no other fee is specified. £50
